

every child is capable of greatness

March 12, 2026

VIA EMAIL

Jeff Casimir
jcasimir@gmail.com

Re: Separation from Employment with Great Minds PBC

Dear Jeff:

As you were informed earlier today, Great Minds PBC (“Great Minds” or the “Company”) has made the decision to end your employment with the Company. Within this letter, you will find a summary of important information related to the termination of your employment with the Company.

Employment Status and Final Pay. Your employment with the Company in your current role is expected to end on March 12, 2026 (“Separation Date”). You will be paid all wages earned through and including the Separation Date on the next regularly scheduled pay day or such earlier time as may be required by applicable law. At that time, you will also be paid for your accrued but unused paid time off, less all usual and required taxes and deductions. You will be reimbursed for all ordinary and necessary reasonable business-related expenses incurred by you prior to the Separation Date in accordance with Company policy. You must submit your request for reimbursement for these expenses, accompanied by proper documentation, via email to AP@greatminds.org on or before March 19, 2026.

Benefits. If you are enrolled in Great Minds’ health insurance, your Company-provided health insurance benefits will terminate as of March 31, 2026. Pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”), if you are currently enrolled in the Company’s health insurance benefits, Great Minds will provide you with written notice of the right to elect to continue your health insurance coverage at your own expense, effective on April 1, 2026. All other Great Minds-provided benefits shall cease on the Separation Date. Any conversion or continuation rights for other insurance or benefits plans will be governed by the terms of those plans.

Severance Benefits. In a further effort to ease your transition, Great Minds is offering you certain severance benefits, contingent upon your agreement to the terms set forth in the enclosed Separation Agreement. Please review this Separation Agreement carefully and discuss it with your attorney and/or advisor. In order to receive the severance benefits provided by the Separation Agreement, you must return a signed copy of the Separation Agreement to the Company by April 2, 2026 and not revoke your acceptance of the Separation Agreement. However, you may not sign the Separation Agreement before the Separation

Date.

Company Property. You must return all property belonging to Great Minds, including but not limited to any computers and related equipment/accessories, cell phones, office badges, speakers, ring lights, printers, scanners, and any Company proprietary or confidential information you were provided during your employment. The Company has no obligation to make the severance payment or to provide the other benefits in the Separation Agreement until all property has been returned.

Post-Employment Obligations. During your employment, you signed a Non-Disclosure and Non-Solicitation Agreement (“NDNS Agreement”), which contains certain obligations that you owe the Company. These obligations include, but are not limited to, your obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the Company’s proprietary information and trade secrets and not to improperly solicit the Company’s customers or employees. We would like to remind you that you remain bound to abide by these obligations even after the termination of your employment and regardless of whether you choose to sign the Separation Agreement. A copy of your NDNS Agreement is attached to the Separation Agreement as Exhibit A.

Tax Documents. If your address should change before February 2027, please be sure to alert the Company so you can timely receive your W-2 and any other tax information.

[Separation Agreement follows on next page]

CONFIDENTIAL SEPARATION AGREEMENT

The following Confidential Separation Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into between Great Minds PBC (“Great Minds” or the “Company”) and Jeff Casimir (“Employee”). The Company and Employee together may be referred to as the “Parties.” Capitalized terms not defined in the Agreement shall be defined as provided in the letter above. The Parties wish to voluntarily resolve all issues that arise out of their employment relationship, including Employee’s termination therefrom, and therefore agree as follows:

Severance Pay. The Company shall provide Employee with severance pay in the sum of Fifteen Thousand Three Hundred Eighty-Four Dollars and Sixty-Two Cents ($15,384.62), less applicable taxes and deductions, which is an amount equal to 4 weeks of Employee’s current base salary (the “Severance Pay”). The Severance Pay will be paid in the form of salary continuation according to the Company’s regular payroll cycle for a four (4) week period (the “Severance Pay Period”), conditioned upon Employee timely signing this Agreement and not revoking their acceptance, returning all Company property in their possession, and otherwise complying with the terms and conditions in the NDNS Agreement and this Agreement. Employee acknowledges and agrees that the Severance Pay is more than they are entitled to receive under any law or Company policy and serves as adequate consideration for the promises in this Agreement.

COBRA Subsidy. If Employee is enrolled in Great Minds’ health insurance and timely elects COBRA coverage, Great Minds shall pay the same percentage of the costs of Employee’s (and any covered dependents) COBRA coverage as it paid during Employee’s active employment, including the two percent (2%) COBRA administrative premium, for Employee’s medical, dental and vision coverage, for a period of up to four (4) weeks (“COBRA Subsidy Period”). Thereafter, if applicable, Employee may continue to receive healthcare coverage pursuant to COBRA at their own expense. If during the time that Great Minds is paying for Employee’s coverage, Employee becomes eligible for employer-sponsored health insurance benefits, Employee shall notify the Company and its obligations to continue this benefit shall cease. Great Minds shall also cease payments under this paragraph if such payments would violate applicable non-discrimination laws. All payments pursuant to this Paragraph that are paid by Great Minds will be paid directly to the COBRA benefit provider. The Company’s obligation to subsidize COBRA continuation coverage hereunder is conditioned upon Employee timely signing and not revoking their acceptance of this Agreement, Employee returning all Company property in their possession, signing and complying with the NDNS Agreement, and otherwise complying with the terms and conditions in this Agreement. Should Employee be rehired by the Company at any point during the COBRA Subsidy Period, Employee shall cease to be eligible for any benefits under this Paragraph as of the date they become re-eligible for benefits resulting from their rehire.

Cooperation. Employee agrees to make themselves reasonably available to respond to and cooperate with requests for information from the Company and to fully cooperate with the Company on all matters relating to Employee’s employment and the conduct of the Company’s business, including but not limited to any litigation or other matter in which the Company deems that Employee’s cooperation is needed. Unreasonable refusal on Employee’s part to cooperate with the Company’s requests will constitute grounds for the Company to discontinue the benefits provided for in this Agreement immediately and the Company will owe no further payments of any kind to Employee.

Unemployment. The Company shall not seek to contest Employee's entitlement to unemployment benefits taking into account their receipt of the Severance Pay. Employee acknowledges that the decision whether Employee qualifies for such benefits is made by the applicable state agency and is outside of the Company's control. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the Company from truthfully responding to any request for information from any government agency relating to Employee's employment or claim for unemployment, including the amount of Severance Pay Employee receives from the Company. Employee acknowledges that they have received all required notices regarding their right to unemployment benefits pursuant to applicable law.

No Other Payments. Other than the payments and benefits set forth in this Agreement, Employee acknowledges and agrees that they are not entitled to any further payments or benefits from the Company and that the payments and benefits outlined herein shall be the sole consideration paid to Employee for entering into this Agreement.

General Release of Claims and Covenant Not to Sue. In exchange for the benefits described above, Employee forever releases and discharges the Company from any and all claims and demands of any kind or nature, and all damages resulting therefrom, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and compensatory damages, litigation costs or expenses, punitive damages and damages for emotional distress, including with respect to the foregoing, all known and unknown claims, up through and including the date Employee signs this Agreement ("General Release"). Employee provides this General Release not only on behalf of themselves, but also their heirs, executors, successors and assigns. Employee further agrees that this release and discharge of "the Company" includes not only Great Minds PBC, but also any of its current and former, direct and indirect parents, investors, members, subsidiaries, affiliates, joint ventures, their predecessor and successor companies, and with respect to each such entity, all of its past, present and future officers, directors, members, managers, agents, partners, shareholders, and employees (all collectively referred to as the "Released Parties"). This General Release of the Released Parties includes, to the maximum extent permitted by law, claims, rights, and causes of action arising: (1) under all federal, state or local laws relating to employment and employment discrimination, termination rights, compensation, or benefits, such as, but not limited to, the Civil Rights Act of 1866, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"), the Americans with Disabilities Act as amended, ("ADA"), the National Labor Relations Act, ("NLRA"), the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA"), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act ("GINA"), the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act ("OWBPA"), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, ("ERISA"), the Internal Revenue Code, the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA"), claims based on veteran status, such as under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act ("USERRA"), any and all claims under the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Act (CADA), the Lawful Off-Duty Activities Statute (LODA), the Personnel Files Employee Inspection Right Statute, the Colorado Labor Peace Act, the Colorado Labor Relations Act, the Colorado Equal Pay Act, the Colorado Overtime and Minimum Pay Standards Order, the Colorado Healthy Families and Workplaces Act, Colorado FAMLI, and with respect to all such laws, including any amendments and their respective implementing regulations, and (2) all claims arising under any other basis for legal, equitable or administrative relief, whether based on express or implied contract, tort, statute, regulation or other legal or equitable ground, and whether employment-related or not, including but not limited to breach of contract, fraud, negligence (including negligent hiring and retention), implied covenants of good faith and fair dealing, and any and all other federal, state and local statutes, cases, authorities, or laws providing a cause of action. Employee further agrees not to sue or otherwise institute or cause to be instituted or in any way voluntarily participate in the prosecution of any lawsuit against any of the Released Parties in any federal, state, or other court or tribunal concerning any claims released by this Agreement. The Parties expressly acknowledge and agree that the General Release, waiver, and covenant not to sue set forth in this Paragraph shall exclude: (1) the rights and obligations contained in or provided for under this Agreement; (2) any right or entitlement that Employee is not allowed by applicable law to waive or release; (3) any right Employee has to file, cooperate in or participate in a charge, complaint or proceeding with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), or any other federal, state, or local governmental agency or commission (“Government Agencies”); (4) any rights to vested benefits Employee may have under the Company's benefit plans or to any entitlement to continued insurance coverage under COBRA; and (5) any claim that may arise only after Employee signs this Agreement. While this Agreement does not limit Employee's ability to communicate with any Government Agencies or otherwise participate in any investigation or proceeding that may be conducted by any Government Agency, Employee acknowledges that they are waiving any right to recover monetary or other individual relief from any such complaints or charges filed with, or lawsuit filed by, any such Government Agency insofar as they assert claims released by this Agreement, except that this provision does not limit Employee's ability to receive a monetary award from a government-administered whistleblower award program (such as, but not limited to, the SEC or IRS whistleblower award programs).

Representations Concerning Claims. Employee acknowledges and represents that they: (i) have suffered no injuries or occupational diseases arising out of or in connection with their employment with the Company that they have not reported in accordance with Company policy; (ii) have received all wages and other forms of compensation of any kind to which they were entitled as an employee of the Company; (iii) are not currently aware of any facts or circumstances constituting a violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act and/or the FMLA; and (iv) have not engaged in and are not aware of any unlawful conduct relating to the business of the Company. Employee further represents and warrants that they have not assigned, encumbered, or otherwise transferred any interest in any complaint, charge, action, suit, debt, claim, or demand intended to be included in and/or discharged by this Agreement.

No Admission. Nothing in this Agreement shall be considered an admission of any breach, wrongdoing, negligence, retaliation, or discrimination on the part of either Party.

Post Employment Obligations. Employee signed an NDNS Agreement (Exhibit A), which contains certain obligations that survive the termination of Employee's employment with the Company and the signing of this Agreement, including but not limited to Employee's obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the Company's proprietary information and trade secrets and not to improperly solicit the Company's customers or employees. Employee acknowledges that these obligations remain binding even after their employment ends.

Confidentiality of this Agreement. Employee agrees that keeping this Agreement confidential is their preference. Employee shall keep this Agreement confidential and shall not disclose its terms, or any related negotiations, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity, except to the extent required by law or to enforce the terms contained herein. Provided, however, that Employee may disclose such information to their spouse or immediate family, and any attorney, accountant, tax preparer, and financial advisor, pursuant to a lawful subpoena, and as required by law (such as in response to government inquiries). Employee shall be responsible for notifying any spouse, immediate family member, attorney, accountant, tax preparer or financial advisor to whom they disclose this information of the obligation to keep this Agreement confidential and for taking reasonable steps to ensure they do so.

Non-Disparagement. Employee agrees that they will refrain from making reckless, defamatory, knowingly false or maliciously untrue statements, (written or oral), including but not limited to on any social media, websites or printed media, about Great Minds, or its products or services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Paragraph does not, in any way, restrict or impede Employee from exercising protected rights, to the extent that these rights cannot be waived by agreement or from complying with any applicable law or regulation or a valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or an authorized Government Agency, provided that such compliance does not exceed that required by the law, regulation, or order.

General Exceptions to Confidentiality and Non-Disparagement Obligations. Employee acknowledges that nothing in the Agreement or Exhibit A shall have the purpose or effect of prohibiting or preventing Employee from disclosing or discussing, either orally or in writing, any alleged discriminatory or unfair employment practice or making any other legally protected disclosure under Colorado law.

Employment References. Requests for reference should be directed to Human Resources. In response to any request for reference, the Company shall only provide Employee's dates of employment, job title, and with Employee's written authorization, their salary.

WAIVER OF RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL. To the extent permitted by applicable law, as a condition of entering into this Agreement, the Parties mutually waive and relinquish any right to a jury trial they may have with respect to any dispute pertaining to Employee's employment with the Company, including its termination, this Agreement and/or its terms.

Assignment / Entire Agreement. This Agreement and its Exhibits shall be binding upon Employee, Employee's heirs, and personal representatives. This Agreement may not be assigned by Employee. This Agreement may be assigned by the Company and shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding on the Company, as well as its present and future affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, successors, and assigns. This Agreement and its Exhibits embody the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter herein, including but not limited to Employee's employment with the Company and termination therefrom. This document may be changed, waived, discharged, or terminated only by an instrument in writing signed by the Party against whom the enforcement of such change, waiver, discharge, or termination is sought.

Severability. Each provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the Parties authorize courts of competent jurisdiction to modify this Agreement so as to affect the original intent of the Parties and render the provision valid, legal, and enforceable.

Jurisdiction. This Agreement and all of its Exhibits shall be governed by the laws of the Delaware without regard to its conflicts of law provisions. For any disputes arising out of this Agreement, the Parties expressly agree that venue shall solely be proper in the state and federal courts of Delaware.

Voluntary Agreement. By executing this Agreement, Employee confirms that they are relying upon their own judgment and the advice of any attorney they have consulted, and not on any recommendations or representations of the Company or any of its agents or representatives. By executing this Agreement, Employee affirms that they have done so freely, knowingly, and voluntarily, and confirms their competence to understand and hereby accepts all terms and conditions of this Agreement as resolving fully all differences, disputes, claims, and potential claims between Employee and the Company.

Older Workers' Benefit Protection Act. This Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of the Older Workers' Benefit Protection Act.

A. Acknowledgements. Employee acknowledges that they: (1) have been advised in writing to consult with an attorney before executing this Agreement; (2) have obtained and considered such legal counsel as they deem necessary; (3) have been given twenty-one (21) days to consider whether or not to enter into this Agreement, though Employee may sign before the end of this consideration period if they wish (but not before the Separation Date); and (4) have read and understand the terms of this Agreement and are relying upon their own judgment and the advice of their counsel, and not on any recommendations or representations by the Company. Employee agrees that changes to the Agreement, whether material or immaterial, will not re-start the period of consideration. By signing this Agreement, Employee acknowledges that they do so freely, knowingly, and voluntarily. This Agreement does not prohibit Employee from challenging the validity of this Agreement's waiver and release of claims under the ADEA, as amended.

B. Revocation & Effective Date. Employee may revoke their acceptance of this Agreement within seven (7) days after they sign it. Such revocation must be in writing and received by Ingrid Hackett, Esq. via email at Ingrid.Hackett@greatminds.org by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the seventh (7th) day after they initially sign it in order to be effective. If Employee does not revoke acceptance within the seven (7) day period, their acceptance of this Agreement shall become binding and enforceable on the eighth (8th) day after they sign this Agreement ("Effective Date").

Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed electronically in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same legally recognized instrument.

If you have questions about anything in this letter or Agreement please contact John Burke, Lead Human Resources Business Partner at john.burke@greatminds.org or 202-823-4321. We wish you all the best in your future endeavours.

Sincerely,

Rodney Whitmore
Chief Human Resources Officer

I HAVE READ THE CONFIDENTIAL SEPARATION AGREEMENT AND I FULLY UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO ACCEPT ITS TERMS. I AM SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT FREELY AND VOLUNTARILY, HAVING BEEN GIVEN A FULL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITY TO CONSIDER IT AND CONSULT WITH ADVISORS OF MY CHOICE.

AGREED AND ACCEPTED:

Signed by:

JEFF CASIMIR

3/23/2026

Date

EXHIBIT A
NON-DISCLOSURE AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

NON-DISCLOSURE AND NON-SOLICITATION AGREEMENT

THIS EMPLOYEE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into effective as of 10/21/2025 (the "Effective Date"), by Great Minds PBC, a Delaware public benefit corporation located at 55 M Street, SE, Suite 301, Washington, DC 20003 ("GM") on behalf of itself, its parent and other corporate affiliates (collectively referred to herein as the "Employer Group"), and Jeff Casimir (the "Employee") (the Employee and GM may be individually referred to as a 'Party' and collectively referred to herein as the "Parties").

BACKGROUND

The Employer Group was formed to promote content-rich liberal arts and sciences education in America's K-12 public schools. To improve education in America, the Employer Group creates curriculum tools and promotes programs, policies, and initiatives at the local, state, and federal levels that provide students with challenging, rigorous instruction in the full range of liberal arts and sciences.

GM desires to employ the Employee and the Employee desires to be employed as an at-will employee of GM, as more fully set forth in the offer letter between the Parties.

In consideration of Employee's employment by GM, which the Employee acknowledges to be good and valuable consideration for Employee's obligations hereunder, GM and the Employee hereby agree as follows:

1) Non-Disclosure.

(a) The Employee understands and agrees that during the course of employment by GM, Employee will have access to and learn about confidential, secret and proprietary documents, materials, data, and other information, in tangible and intangible form, of and relating to the Employer Group and its businesses and existing and prospective customers, suppliers, investors, and other associated third parties ("Confidential Information"). The Employee further understands and acknowledges that this Confidential Information and the Employer Group's ability to reserve it for the exclusive knowledge and use of the Employer Group is of great competitive importance and commercial value to the Employer Group, and that improper use or disclosure of the Confidential Information by the Employee will cause irreparable harm to the Employer Group, for which remedies at law will not be adequate and may also cause the Employer Group to incur financial costs, loss of business advantage, and liability under confidentiality agreements with third parties.

For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, all information not generally known to the public, in spoken, printed, electronic, or any other form or medium, relating directly or indirectly to: business processes, practices, plans, operations, strategies, contracts, know-how, financial information, customer information, product information and other information of the Employer Group or its businesses, or of any other person or entity that has entrusted information to the Employer Group in confidence.

The Employee understands that the above list is not exhaustive, and that Confidential Information also includes other information that is marked or otherwise identified as confidential or proprietary, or that would otherwise appear to a reasonable person to be confidential or proprietary in the context and circumstances in which the information is known or used.

The Employee understands and agrees that Confidential Information developed by Employee in the course of employment by GM shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as if GM furnished the same Confidential Information to the Employee in the first instance. Confidential Information shall not include information that is generally available to and known by the public, provided that such disclosure to the public is through no direct or indirect fault of the Employee or person(s) acting on the Employee's behalf.

Employer Group hereby retains its entire right, title, and interest, including all intellectual property rights, in and to all Confidential Information provided or accessed by Employee. Any disclosure of such Confidential Information to Employee shall in no way be construed as an assignment, grant, option, license, or other transfer of any such right, title, or interest whatsoever in such Confidential Information to Employee.

(b) Disclosure and Use Restrictions. The Employee agrees and covenants:

i) to treat all Confidential Information as strictly confidential;

ii) not to directly or indirectly disclose, publish, communicate, or make available Confidential Information, or allow it to be disclosed, published, communicated, or made available, in whole or part, to any entity or person whatsoever (including other employees of the Employer Group) not having a need to know and authority to know and to use the Confidential Information in connection with the business of the Employer Group and, in any event, not to anyone outside of the direct employ of the Employer Group; and

iii) not to access or use any Confidential Information, and not to copy any documents, records, files, media, or other resources containing any Confidential Information, or remove any such documents, records, files, media, or other resources from the premises or control of the Employer Group, except as required in the performance of any of the Employee's authorized employment duties to GM.

iv) to fully cooperate with Employer Group in any effort undertaken by the Employer Group to enforce its rights related to any unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information.

v) Permitted Disclosures. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent disclosure of Confidential Information as may be required by applicable law or regulation, or pursuant to the valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or an authorized government agency, provided that the disclosure does not exceed the extent of disclosure required by such law, regulation, or order. The Employee shall promptly provide written notice of any such order to an authorized officer of GM.

(c) Duration of Confidentiality Obligations. The Employee understands and acknowledges that Employee's obligations under this Agreement with regard to any particular Confidential Information shall commence immediately upon the Employee first having access to such Confidential Information (whether before or after Employee begins employment with GM) and shall continue during and after employment by GM until such time as such Confidential Information has become public knowledge other than as a result of the Employee's breach of this Agreement or breach by those acting in concert with the Employee or on the Employee's behalf.

(d) Upon the termination of employment, Employee immediately return to the Employer Group all copies, whether in written, electronic or other form or media, of the Employer Group's Confidential Information in possession by Employee.

2) Assignment of Work Product. The Employee acknowledges that all drawings, designs, graphics, discoveries, concepts, ideas, inventions, innovations, improvements, developments, methods, analyses, reports, intellectual property (including trademark, copyright and patent) applications, copyrightable work and mask work (whether or not including any confidential information) and all related registrations or applications, all other proprietary information and all similar or related information (whether or not patentable), which relate to the Employer Group's actual or anticipated business, research and development or existing or future products or services and which are conceived, developed or made by the Employee (whether alone or jointly with others) while employed by GM ("Work Product"), belong to GM. The Employee shall promptly disclose such Work Product to GM and, at GM's expense, perform all actions reasonably requested by GM (whether during or after the Employee's employment with GM) to establish and confirm GM's ownership (including, without limitation, assignments, consents, powers of attorney and other instruments). The Employee further represents and warrants that (a) all Work Product shall be original to the Employee and not copies or substantial copies of any other artwork, sketches, drawings, designs, graphics, imagery, color studies, photographs, mechanicals, signage, text, typography or related materials, and (b) no Work Product shall infringe the Intellectual Property or other rights of any third party.

3) No Statements Regarding Creation of Work Product. The Employee agrees that he/she will not at any time, whether during or after the term of the Employee's employment by GM, represent to any third party that the Employee authored or has any rights to the Work Product or any other intellectual property of GM. (For purposes of clarification, while the Employee may not represent or imply that the Employee was the sole author or creator of any GM curriculum, the Employee may disclose that the Employee was part of a team that developed the GM curriculum.)

4) Non-Solicitation.

(a) Commencing on the date of this Agreement and continuing for a period of twelve (12) months following the termination of the Employee's employment with GM for any reason, the Employee will not (other than on behalf of GM) (i) solicit, deal with, or otherwise interfere with any of the Employer Group's contracts or relationships with any person or entity who/that is an existing or prospective customer, client or independent contractor of the Employer Group at any time during the term of the Employee's employment with GM; (ii) provide professional learning services in the GM curriculum to any third party; or (iii) solicit, employ, or otherwise interfere with any of the Employer Group's contracts or relationships with, any employee, officer or director who is employed by or associated with the Employer Group during the term of the Employee's employment with GM.

(b) This Section 4 shall not prohibit the Employee from dealing with any customer, client or contractor on matters unrelated to the Employer Group's business or intellectual property after the termination of the Employee's employment.

(c) This Section 4 shall not prohibit the Employee from providing services to third parties with whom the Employee has established relationships prior to the Effective Date and who are disclosed on Schedule A, provided that (a) the Employee uses only the Employee's own curriculum materials or publicly available curriculum materials and modules, and does not use GM's professional development materials or modules, (b) the Employee affirmatively discloses to the Employee's clients and customers that the Employee is not performing services on behalf of, or sanctioned by, GM, and (c) the provision of services to such third party is not in violation of GM's Conflicts of Interest Policy.

(d) For purposes of this Section 4, a prospective customer means a K-12 school or educational system with which (a) GM has engaged in multiple interactions (at least two written or oral communications) regarding GM's services during an Employee's employment, and (b) discussions regarding GM's services remain open throughout the term of the Employee's employment. Discussions will not be considered open if GM does not engage in any oral or written communication with a prospective customer for six (6) consecutive months during the term of the Employee's employment. After an Employee's separation from service with GM, the Employee may provide prior written notice to GM of his/her desire to engage in business with a prospective customer, and GM will consent to release such prospective customer from the restrictions in this Section if GM determines (in its reasonable discretion) that discussions with the prospective customer regarding GM's services have ceased.

5) Employee Acknowledgments. The Employee has carefully considered the nature and extent of the restrictions upon him/her set forth in this Agreement (the "Restrictions") and the rights and remedies conferred upon GM under this Agreement, and acknowledges and agrees that they are reasonable with respect to time and territory, are designed to preclude competition which would be unfair to GM, are fully required to protect the legitimate business interests of GM, and/or do not restrict the Employee from earning a living after he/she leaves GM.

6) Survival. This Agreement shall survive the termination or expiration of the Employee's employment with GM for any reason.

7) General Provisions.

(a) All notices required by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently given if delivered personally or mailed by registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the parties at their then current addresses. All notices shall be deemed to have been given as of the date so delivered or mailed.

(b) Except insofar as the Employee may be subject to general policies adopted by GM from time to time, this Agreement contains the entire transaction between the parties, and there are no other representations, warranties, conditions or agreements relating to the subject matter of this Agreement.

(c) The waiver by any Party of any breach or default of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach.

(d) This Agreement may not be changed orally but only by an agreement in writing executed on behalf of the Party against which enforcement of any waiver, change, modification, consent or discharge is sought.

(e) This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of GM and the Employee and their respective successors, assigns, heirs and legal representatives. Insofar as The Employee is concerned, this Agreement is personal and the Employee's duties under it shall not be assigned.

(f) Each of the Parties agrees to execute all further instruments and documents and to take all further action as the other party may reasonably request in order to effectuate the terms and purposes of this Agreement.

(g) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(h) This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware. Actions brought under this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Delaware. Each Party consents to the personal jurisdiction Of such courts for such actions and agrees that they may be served with process in accordance with Section 7(a).

(i) If any Restriction is held or deemed to be invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, for any reason (including without limitation geographic, temporal or subject matter scope overbreadth), such term or provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only, and the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

j.) GM and the Employee desire and intend that the Restrictions be given effect to the maximum extent permitted by law and equity. They therefore respectfully request that any Restriction determined to be overbroad in any manner shall be reformed or interpreted to give that Restriction the maximum effect permissible by law and equity, and the Employee agrees to the enforcement of the Restriction as so modified.

k. Section headings in this document are for convenience of reference only and shall not be given any substantive effect in limiting or otherwise construing any provision herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Great Minds PBC

By:

Name: Rodney Whitmore

Title: Chief Human Resources Officer

Employee

By:  Signed by: Jeff Casimir
D893827208C44D2...

Name: Jeff Casimir

SCHEDULE A

Please provide a list (below or in a separate document) of any third parties to whom you provide services